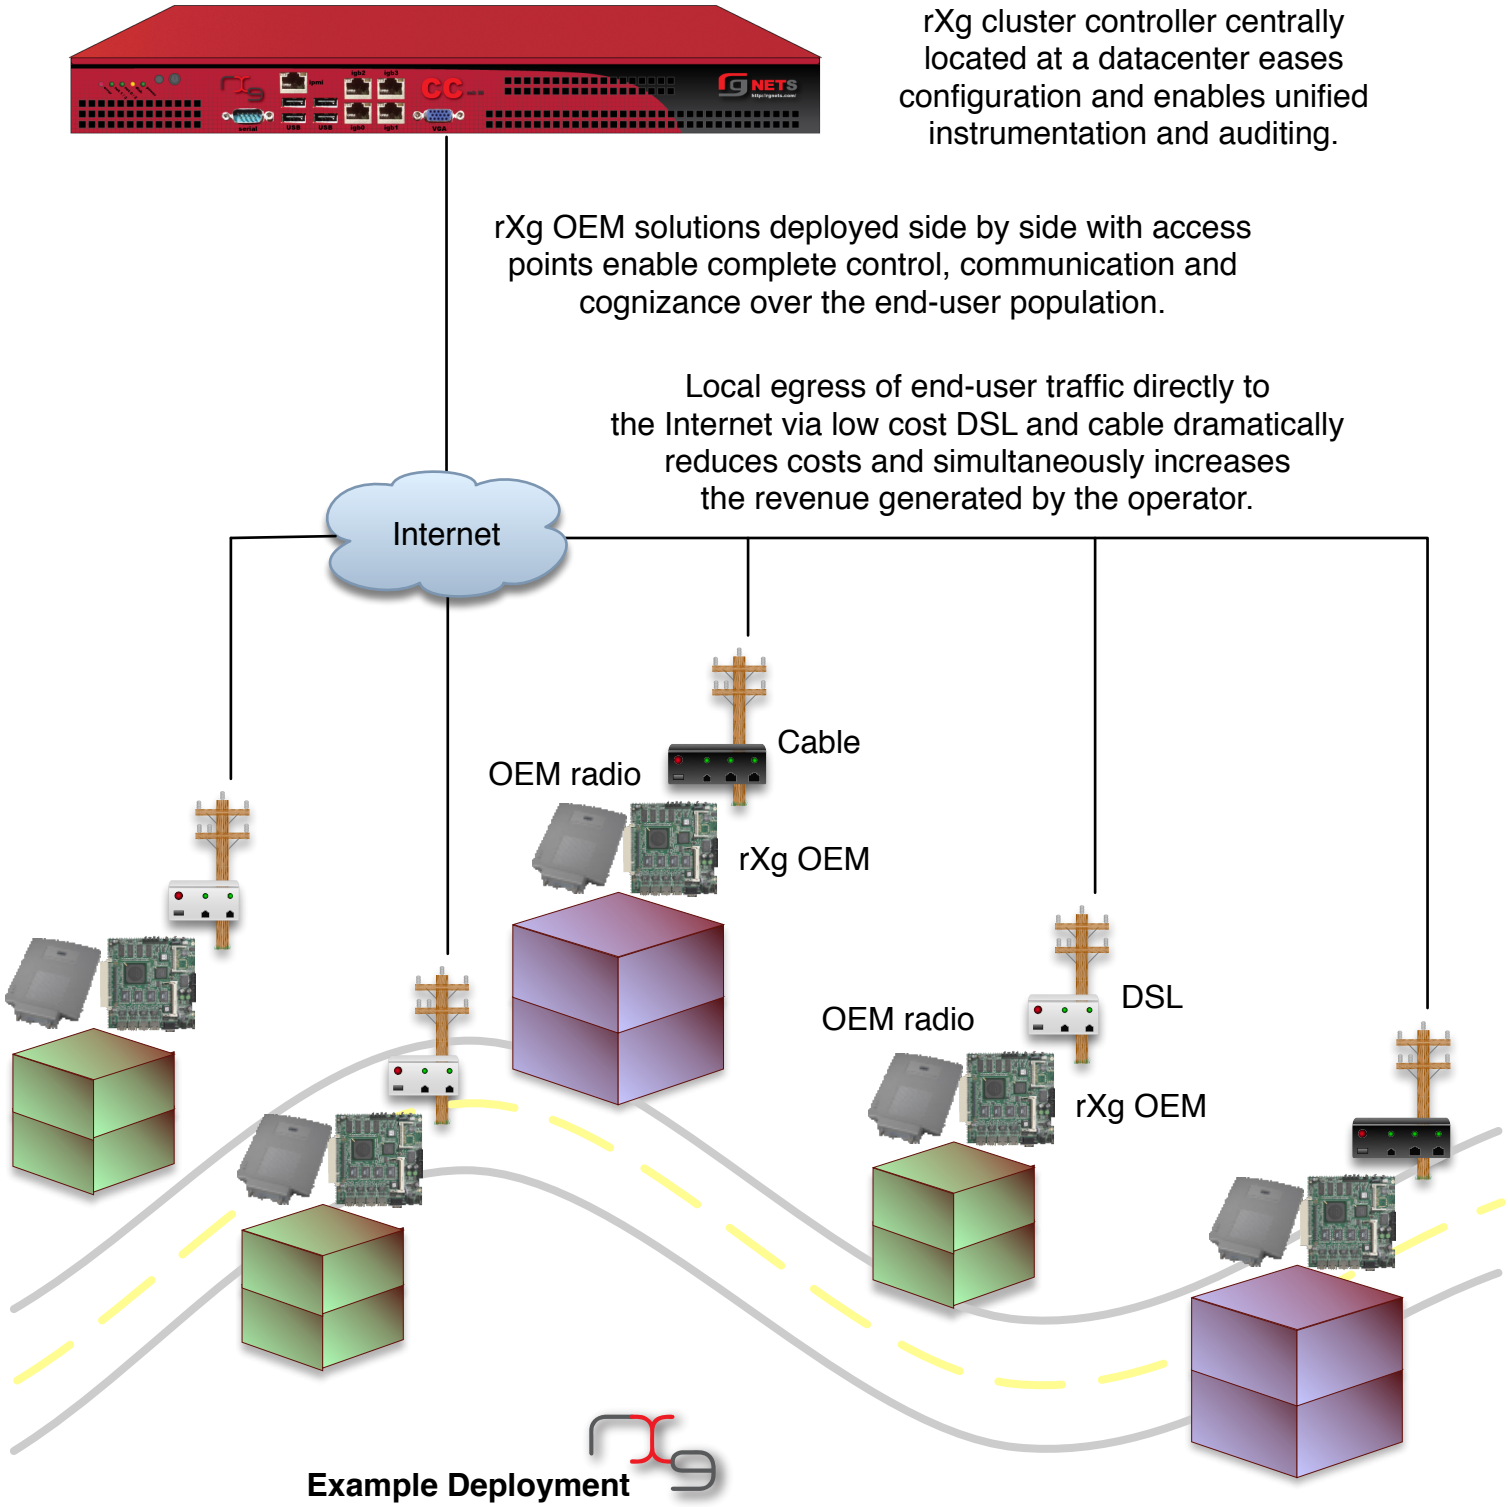
rXg cluster controller centrally located at a datacenter eases configuration and enables unified instrumentation and auditing.

rXg OEM solutions deployed side by side with access points enable complete control, communication and cognizance over the end-user population.

Local egress of end-user traffic directly to the Internet via low cost DSL and cable dramatically reduces costs and simultaneously increases the revenue generated by the operator.



Example Deployment