

An rXg RS6 cluster supports up to 100,000 simultaneously connected end-user devices at a high density property such as a major transit hub or event venue.

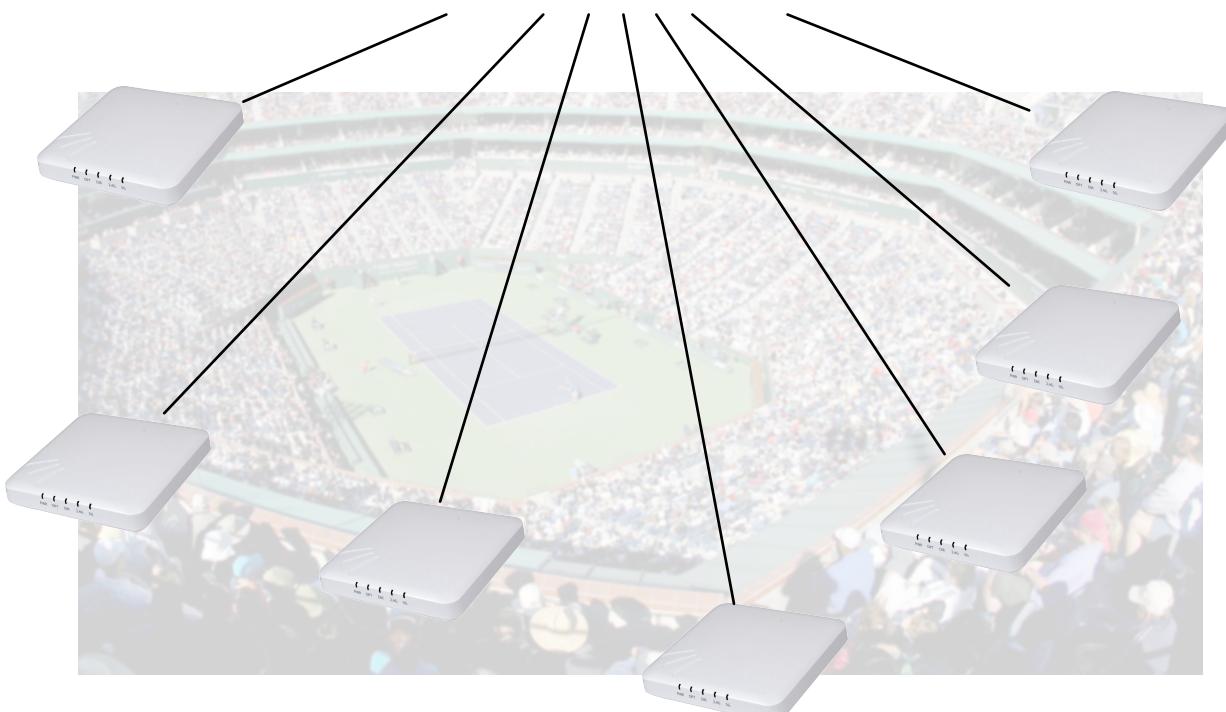

10G Ethernet switch

The rXg cluster solution provides a single GUI interface for the venue operator as well as a single place for the WLAN controller to communicate with resulting in simplified management with extreme scale.

WLAN controller

Example Deployment

